

Uncle Sam Wants You?

DALLAS, March 8 (Reuters) — Elbert Lewis of Odessa, Tex., was surprised when he received a letter telling him to register for the draft, since he is 80 years old and a World War II Navy veteran.

He told The Dallas Morning News that he received the letter on Saturday from the Selective Service saying he had not registered for the draft as required by law when he turned 18. The letter indicated that Mr. Lewis was born Nov. 11, 1976, instead of Nov. 11, 1914.

3/9/95