COMPUTERS AND THE AMERICAN PATRIOT

By Louis Beam

It may very well be that American know-how has provided the technology which will allow those who love this country to save it from an ill deserved fate.

Computers, once solely the domain and possession of governments and large corporations, are now bringing their power and capabilities to the average American.

No longer is it necessary to be a programmer or spend years in college in order to make a computer function. Their ease of use has been simplified to the point that six-year-olds now operate them in their first year of formal education in many school districts.

It has been said that knowledge is power, which it most assuredly is. The computer offers, to those who become proficient in its use, power undreamed of by the rulers of the past.

A computer, when connected to a modem (a telephone for computers) possesses the ability to access virtually unlimited amounts of information. Like magic, the written word appears on the screen of the computer at a speed the fastest typist can not match.

INFORMATION AND THE AMERICAN PATRIOT

There are over 2000 commercial "on line" data bases (information banks) in operation now, with the number growing monthly. These data bases contain information on nearly any subject known to man. One data base, Dialogue, contains over three million references. The same information sources the federal government used to study after effects of nuclear war are contained in Dialogue computer banks and are available to anyone with a computer. The New York Public Library is going "on line," which will allow people to call in to have their favorite book transferred to their home computer screen, as well as requesting research on any subject of interest. How much information can you get? How much can you pay for? All of the information contained in the data bases is for sale. Already, one can have the Fort Worth Star Telegram delivered to the computer screen for $7.95 a month, with other newspapers soon to become available.

Additionally, there are several thousand privately owned electronic bulletin board systems (BBS) that can be connected to those are operated by citizens. These boards are electronic replacements for the town criers of former times. Anyone with a computer and something to say can go "on line" with his own bulletin board. In Houston, for example, there are over forty such BBS systems. Can anyone learn to do it? One of the forty is run by a thirteen-year-old child!

COMMAND AND CONTROL

Imagine, if you can, a single computer to which all leaders and strategists of the patriotic movement are connected. Imagine further that any patriot in the country is able to tap into this computer at will in order to reap the benefit of all accumulative knowledge and wisdom of the leaders. "Someday," you may say? How about today? Such a computer is already in existence and operational. We hereby announce Aryan Nation Liberty Net. Dial 208-772-6134, listen to the computer talk. Of course, you won't be able to understand what is being said unless you are calling from a computer.

At this very moment, key personnel and leaders across the country are buying computers and connecting themselves into this "on line" patriotic brain trust. Aryan Nation Liberty Net can be accessed twenty-four hours a day by anyone with a computer. Messages can be posted to anyone else on the system in private, or announcements made that anyone can read. Do you have tax questions? Problems with federal harassment? Questions on common law? Financial investment, hard money, or survival precautions? Interested in knowing what you can do to help insure the survival of the great race of men who gave you the Magna Carta and the Declaration of Independence? Through the net, ask an expert in the movement.

SUMMARY

This is but a brief overview of relationships that are now being developed between computers and American patriots.

The possibilities have only been touched upon, and no doubt you can think of many more. It is clear that some of the advantages that previously belonged only to the government are now going to be options for patriots.

January 1, 1984. An almost mystical date. A date so ominous that possibly it should be written in the hieroglyphs of an evil, living race that once dwelt by the waters of Babylon.

Nothing that George Orwell predicted has come true exactly as he wrote it. But everything that he predicted has come true either in a parallel form or exists in an embryonic form, or both. The "hero" of the story worked in a "Ministry of Truth" -- Do we not have just such a ministry in what we call the "controlled media," and does not every word spoken or written by this media have to conform to the dogma of the "liberal/minority coalition"? The "hero" of the story rewrote history -- is not history being rewritten with truth going down the hole? Fabricated lies such as the myth of the six million or of the great African civilizations are being invented out of thin air. The "hero" of the story committed the ultimate wrong: "Thought crime." Are not Klannic and other pro-White thoughts now "crimes" and do not government spies seek to ferret out those who commit such "thought crimes"? In his book, Orwell called the government that was in power "Engsoc" -- English Socialism. We call ours "American Democracy." A politburo-like "inner party" was puppetmaster over "Engsoc"; a sanhedrin-like "liberal/minority coalition" is puppetmaster over the federal government. The embodiment of "Engsoc" was the fictitious character called "Big Brother." We simply call ours "the Feds."

The United States -- the United States which Washington and Jefferson, Calhoun and Lee, Theodore Roosevelt and George Patton, Lindbergh and Henry Ford all knew -- is dead. Everyone who eulogizes its passing has a favorite date for its instant of death. All of them, and none of them, are right. The United States did not die as a man dies; instead it died in the manner of an unwanted product phased out by a company. All of a sudden it dawns on everyone that the product is no longer on the shelves of the store, but no one knows when or why it "vanished." The liberal/minortiy coalition phased out the America of our fathers, over a period of several generations, and now...welcome to 1984.

...Let those of us who care (few as we are) and who know why (few as we be) go to that blank tombstone and carve a date upon it which we all can agree upon, at least symbolically: January 1, 1984.

George Orwell's book has one glaring failing: He saw too much red and too little brown. Big Brother was almost an anti-Christ seeking to produce a universal Marxist-zombie by killing the human spirit. The Federals are almost an anti-Christ too, but one seeking to produce a one-world raceless mudman. Oddly, or not so oddly, the final result will be the same: God's great experiment will come to an end, at least as far as man is concerned. The stars and the planets may very well continue to move through the limitless heavens of the universe. But there will be only animal eyes to see the splendid workings of the divine clockwork, for a raceless man is an animal without a soul.

Race is the bedrock upon which all other things are built. It is a primal constant which defines the nature of the existence of all things in the human realm.

The White race has been called by many names, all of which even today have their places and usages. The oldest of them is "Aryan," which means "noble," or "great ruler," in the Sanskrit from which it comes.

Our race has existed in many lands and ages. It has spoken many tongues and created many governments, cultures, and civilizations. In its history our race has risen to unequalled heights, and unfortunately has fallen to great depths. While other races have dreamed of conquering the world, the Aryans have done so many times. As recently as 1950, we were undisputed masters of the world. By 1960 we were on the retreat everywhere, even in our own once all-White homelands. Today -- 1984 -- we stand (or possibly "kneel" would be more accurate) almost totally dispossessed of all power and sovereignty. And tomorrow...tomorrow we face the very real possibility, or even probability, of racial extinction.

After having clawed and fought over every inch of the light-years separating the stone age from the space age, is this to be our fate? Is this how we are to repay God for all the generosity and patience He has shown us? If our race dies, it will do so because it has chosen to -- not because God has ordained it. But if we so choose, He will allow it. Hell is crowded with of souls who chose wrong...

Physically we have not changed since 1950, since 1850, or even 1450. Our change has been a change of the mind and of the spirit -- our physical fall has been totally caused by that mental, that spiritual, fall. There is no other race on earth with the tools, weapons of war, or the technology to conquer our people, even though we number only 10% of the world's population. Our race has at its fingertips the technology and the wisdom to benignantly rule the earth and end forever the suffering and hunger of the lower peoples, while at the same time reaching out for our destiny among the stars. Yet, as a result of our base lust after the false god of materialism and our seduction by the sooth sayers and ideologists of the socialist left, we do not even rule in our own racial homelands; we, like sheep gone astray, wander aimlessly, without direction and without hope, lacking the will to use the potentials of technology and wisdom God gave us at the creation of our race.

We waste our time and energy if we await some future, external enemy to conquer us. We have already been conquered, a long time ago -- not a shot was fired. We were conquered by false ideas. False ideas confused our minds, sapped our wills, weakened our spirits and blinded our eyes to the fact that we were being conquered. Thus we wait at the beaches for an enemy that will not soon come, one that will never come without our help and welcome. In the meanwhile, we ignore the enemy that already rules us.

It is true enough that there are swarming multitudes of lower peoples who yearn to finish us off, both on battlefield and in maternity wards. But they would be insignificant threats were it not for the spiritual fetters which restrain our limbs and clip our wings. We are contained in a bondage which is both the strongest and weakest of all ties. Our bonds are no stronger nor more solid than air, yet they bind more tightly than finest steel. No saw nor ax can cut them, yet they would disappear like an evanescent breeze if we would but cease believing such wrong, evil, alien ideas as bind us.

One of the characteristics of the Fifth Era of our Holy Order is that the Fifth Era knight recognizes the true nature of the battle in which we are engaged. The Fifth Era does not plan for defense against future conquest; rather, it plans to overthrow past conquest. The Fifth Era knows that there will be many battles fought with bullets, but it also knows that many engagements, many conflicts, will be fought with ideas and will take place at the beginning of the conflict, not at the end.

The Fifth Era is not for everyone. It is an Era for hard men, iron hard men-- hard men who possess an ability to use minds -- not just brains, but minds, which are the products of brains being used. The Fifth Era Klansman is one who is hard enough to first place his mind in control, iron control, of all his faculties; exercising a rigid mental discipline in which thoughts are supreme; thus subduing and controlling all emotions. He must value truth over lies no matter how seductive the lies; ridding himself of false and foolish notions. No matter his rank and station in the outer world, he must willingly devote himself to performing essential tasks of the Fifth Empire. All but a handful of Fifth Era klansmen may go to their graves faceless and unknown -- as anonymous as the faceplate of their helmets. Such is our ancient way -- the ancient way we abandoned during the second, third, and fourth Eras, the ancient way to which we now return. Silence, Stealth, and Secrecy -- watchwords of this Era.

The Fifth Era klansman has rid himself of the soft, cushy, easy-way-out world view of the contemporary American middle class. There will be no buying or praying our way out of this struggle, no more than there was for David when he faced Goliath, or Washington when he fought the British. The value of prayer is not doubted, but God gave us a body with which to work and a mind with which to intelligently guide our labor. Had He meant for us to pray our way through life, while assuming no duties, He would have made us all mouth and not have supplied hands with which to accomplish tasks. Be certain. God will never do that which He gave us the ability to for accomplish ourselves; for that would be a violation of the natural laws He established. Our Father is a law giver, not a law breaker. Our salvation or our death lies in our own hands, as rightly it should.

The Fifth Era klansman must purify and separate himself from the world about him, becoming single-minded in purpose, serving good and eschewing bad. His every breath must be drawn with an intent to preserve life for our people. He must exemplify the True Believer.

Furthermore, the Fifth Era klansman must rid himself of race hatreds, if any exist. Race hatred is a negative emotion, and every Fifth Era knight should cultivate a positive racial faith, not working against any race, but rather working for our race. The hating, prejudiced redneck was never effective. Such behavior has earned us little. Enough! Now comes the clear-headed, cold-eyed, iron-willed racial warrior, who seeks the initiative, acting rather than reacting, desiring nothing but the absolute obliteration of all who oppose the life of our folk. Only hard men may master self-control, to a degree essential for battle; and the Fifth Era will be an Empire of hard men. To all others the portals are closed.

Our Order is a racial warrior priesthood. We know what "racial" means, and we know what "warrior" means -- and we are coming to know what "priesthood" means as the Fifth Era unfolds and men step forward to dedicate their life's blood to the struggle for the Folk.

These are our answers to questions arising in 1984. Let our enemies begin to fear, along with those who mindlessly serve the oppressive government. After each day comes a night. And all nights, all days, belong to the Fifth Era.

Announcing

Aryan Nations/Ku Klux Klan Computer Net

Serving "Our Nation" from Sea to Sea and Pole to Pole

Dial 208-772-6134

At Aryan Nations International Headquarters the combined ARYAN NATIONS /KU KLUX KLAN COMPUTER NET is now "on line" seven days a week, twenty-four hours a day. Klansmen will never be out of touch again. Current up-to-the-minute information, as well as security alerts, are now constantly available.

This computer net is functioning in the form of an electronic bulletin board, where messages can either be posted in the public section for all to read, or sent privately to any other individual via the electronic mail feature.

A special electronic code access available only to Aryan Nations/Ku Klux Klan officers and selected individuals is being implemented.

Additionally, many of the most active organizations in the U.S. and Canada, will be publishing an electronic newsletter that you will be able to read on your computer screen merely by dialing the number (no paper, no federal mails, no lost information).

At last, those who love God and their Race and strive to serve their Nation will be utilizing some of the advanced technology available heretofore only to those in the ZOG (Zionist Occupational Government) government and others who have sought the destruction of the Aryan people.

COMMAND GUIDE TO THE ARYAN NATIONS LIBERTY NET

The first time you call, the A.N. computer will ask you to type in your password, or the word "new." The message will appear as follows:

CONNECTED TO: ARYAN NATIONS LIBERTY NET
(ENTER PASSWORD OR TYPE THE WORD: NEW)
----->

A message will follow, assigning you your personal password. This password is yours alone and should be kept private. Once validated, it will allow you to use all of the functions of the board. Anyone may call up and read the information on the public board, but only those with validated passwords may post messages or use the private electronic mail feature.

PASSWORD VALIDATION

In order to use all of bulletin board features, use the "F" key for "feedback," and leave your name, address, and phone number. There is a one-time charge of five dollars for processing and equipment usage fee. If you only want to read, simply type in the word "new" each time you call and forget the five dollars.

THE MENU

After receiving your password and writing it down, you should make your selections from the menu that will appear on screen. Merely hit the key shown to the left of the function you desire; it is that simple.

SECURITY

The computer monitors the selections and activities of each person who calls. Anyone who attempts to disrupt the system, or who uses it improperly, will automatically be denied future access. There is no secure information on this system, it can all be read by someone. So keep this in mind when leaving messages.

QUESTIONS

If you have any questions on how to use this system, hit the "H" key for help, and the function of each key will be explained by the computer.

SIGNING OFF

Leave the system properly. When finished, type the letter "O" for off.

PATRIOTIC GROUPS ROSTER

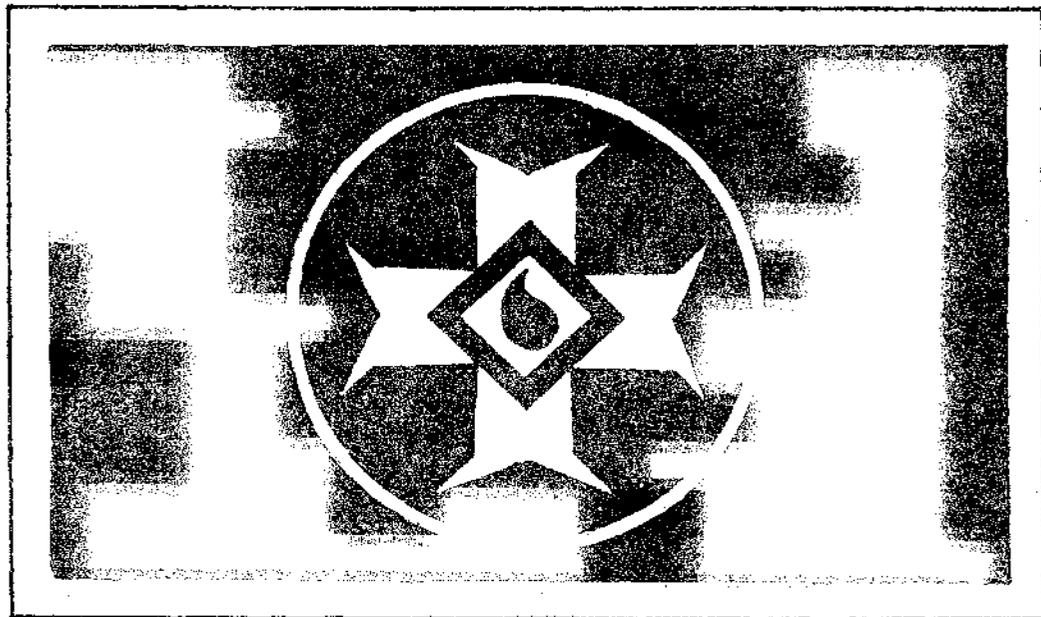

By typing the "B" key you will get a list of groups which are listed so that you may contact them. To have your group listed, send the pertinent information along with a five dollar entry fee to the system address.

NEED A COMPUTER?

If you are new to the Electronic Information Age, and do not yet have a computer, or for that matter do not even know what kind to buy, we can help you. You may write for free information and literature on computer systems, printers, and telephone modems. Also there are many good buys right out of the newspaper on used computers (mostly Apples) that you should consider. Currently a new Apple IIe imitation, can be had for $850.00. Unless you are an organizational leader, you do not need to spend more than this (those who run organizations will need more advanced systems). Write or call for more information.

ECHOES FROM THE PAST
COMPILED BY
J. Q. A D A M S

(Material chosen for this series is selected because of merit inherent in the thoughts expressed. Sources are not identified.)

"The great masses' receptive ability is very limited, their understanding small, but their forgetfulness great. As a consequence of these facts, all effective propaganda has to limit itself to a very few points and use them like slogans until even the very last man is able to imagine what is intended by that slogan. As soon as one sacrifices this basic principle and tries to become versatile, the effect is frittered away; the masses are neither able to digest the material offered nor to retain it. Thus the result is weakened and effectiveness destroyed."

"Every national body can be divided into three great classes: into an extreme of the best mankind on the one hand, good in the sense that they possess all virtues, especially distinguished by courage and an eagerness to sacrifice themselves, but on the other hand, an extreme of the worst scum of the people, bad in the sense that they present all egotistic impulses and vices. Between the two extremes lies a third class, the large broad middle stratum which embodies neither brilliant heroism nor the basest criminal mentality."

"All great questions of the times are questions of the moment, and they represent only consequences of certain causes. Only one of them is of causal importance, that is, the question of the racial preservation of the nationality. In the blood alone rests the strength as well as the weakness of man; as long as the people do not recognize and pay attention to the importance of their racial foundation, they resemble blunderers who would like to teach the greyhound's qualities to poodles, without realizing that the greyhound's speed and the poodle's docility are qualities which are not taught, but are peculiar to the race. Peoples who renounce the preservation of their racial purity renounce also the unity of their soul in all its expressions. The torn condition of their nature is the natural, necessary consequence of the polluted condition of their blood, and the change in their spiritual and creative force is only the effect of the change in their racial foundations."

"The greatness of a movement is exclusively guaranteed by the unrestricted development of its inner strength and by the latter's permanent increase up to its final victory over all competitors."

"It must be pointed out again and again to the adherents of the movement, and in a wider sense to the entire people, that the Jew alone always lies in his publications, and that even a once asserted truth serves only to cover a greater fraud, and thus in turn it is again deliberate untruth. The Jew is the great master of lying and deceit; deception is his greatest weapon in the fight.

"Every Jewish defamation and every Jewish lie is an attack on the body of Christianity. Christ is nearest to us when their abuse is the greatest and He is hated most mortally.

"If these principles enter the flesh and the blood of our adherents, the movement will become unshakable and invincible."

"The Jew knows this best of all. His great men are only great in the destruction of mankind and its culture, as they continue idolatrous ways. Jews attempt to arouse admiration for their own genius.

"If Christianity becomes so cowardly that it bows down to this Jewish arrogance and impudence, it renounces the powerful energy of Christianity.

"If Christian hearts break and Christian souls despair, then the Jews will have successfully substituted a false history and convinced Christians that the devil-worshipping Jews are 'God's Chosen People.' This lie they never cease repeating.

"Woe to the Christians who stupidly believe the lying Jew!"

"The Jew will never willingly leave a territory he occupies; he may be expelled only with force and with great difficulty. Within historic times, each and every civilized nation has, at one or more times, expelled all Jews. Like a harmful bacillus, the Jew is always ready to occupy a favorable medium. Where he appears, the host people die out sooner or later.

"Thus the Jew lives at all times in the States of other peoples and there he forms his own States which, though disguised by the name of 'religious community,' generally exists as a cancerous growth whose sole purpose is to absorb the body wherein it dwells.

"In the Jew's life as a parasite in the body of other nations and States, the characteristic is established which caused Schopenhauer (paraphrasing words of the Christ) to pronounce that the Jew is the 'great master of lying.' Life urges the Jew towards the lie, that is, to a perpetual lie, just as life encourages the inhabitants of Christian countries to obey the Commandments.

"The Jew's life with other peoples can only continue in the long run if he succeeds in creating the impression that his is only a 'religious community.'

"This is the first of the great lies Jews tell to lull suspicion.

"In order to lead his existence as a parasite, he is forced to deny his inner nature. The more cunning the Jew is, the more will he succeed in this delusion. Great parts of the host nation finally believe in all sincerity that the Jew is really a Frenchman or an Englishman, a German or an Italian, though also of a special 'denomination.' State authorities, lulled by bribery disguised as gifts are easily victimized by this deception. In some religious circles independent thinking is looked upon as a genuine sin, so that one must not be surprised that some American Christian ministers have not the faintest idea that the Jew is a 'people' and not a 'denomination.' One look into the Jew's newspapers ought to demonstrate this fact to even the slowest mind.

"Upon this first and greatest lie, that the Jew is not a race but simply a religion, further lies are then built up in necessary consequence. Language is never a means of expressing Jewish thoughts, but only for hiding it. No matter the language he speaks he always thinks Jewish. When he turns out pornographic movies and television programs, he only gives an outlet to the nature of his people, which is to attack Christianity.

"The Jews, although mongrels, are always a people with definite racial qualities. Their awareness of this fact made them look for a means which could divert disagreeable attention from their persons. But what would have been more useful and at the same time more harmless than assuming the appearance of being a religious community? But here, too, everything is false. Resulting from his own original nature the Jew cannot possess a religious institution for the reason that he lacks any idealism in any form and he also does not recognize any belief in the hereafter. In the Aryan conception one cannot conceive of a religion which lacks conviction of continuation of life after death. Indeed, the Talmud is not a book for the preparation for a life to come, but rather for a practical and bearable life in this world.

ESSAYS of a KLANSMAN

By Louis R. Beam, Jr. Grand Dragon Emertius, Realm Of Texas

What others have said about the book:

Pastor Richard G. Butler, Aryan Nations: "I recommend that every Aryan Nations member who is in truth committed to our cause read and commit it to memory."

Robert E. Miles, The Mountain Church: "The pen prepares the way for the hacking thrusts that we all know must ultimately come...(Essays Of A Klansman) is a 'must' for every racist."

Byron De La Beckwith, White Knights: "A prophetic eye opener...I find it the most accurate and understandable appraisal of what we must do now."

Glen Miller, Carolina Knights: "A great work of art...it provided me with more insight into many areas relative to our struggle and holy cause."

Euro-American Quarterly, Summer 1983, Book Review: Essays Of A Klansman

In actuality, this collection of essays reaches the magnitude of a handbook for the Aryan Christian. This is due to the practical value that pervades every word: Beam instructs as he writes. Regarding history, he analogizes between past and present in order to offer viable suggestions toward a plan for the future. The essay entitled "Revolutionary Majority" is a perfect example of this method. In it Beam outlines similar conditions between the original American Revolution of the 1770's and 1780's and the new revolution which must take place if the White man is to reclaim the nation. Beam says: "... the American Revolution was anything but a broad-based popular uprising of a disaffected people. Rather, it was a very unpopular rebellion of a politically radical minority who, because they possessed a clear understanding of the rights of man coupled with a deep concern for the state of relative personal freedom, were able to perceive the shackles of tyranny prior to their being presented for fastening. This discernment of tyranny at a distance not only set them apart from their fellow-men but constrained them to rebel."

Does that sound like today? It does. This book is must reading for any serious student of or participant in the White Cause. The Quarterly HIGHLY RECOMMENDS Essays Of A Klansman.
